

“Experiencing All Jesus Has For you Now”

The last verse in the passage read (Matthew 13:58) is a verse that has to get our attention. Jesus did not do many mighty works there - what could have been?? Oh, the grief of the things that could have been but was not.

Do you want that to be said of you, your family, our church? I hope not!!! So, let's look at some ways to experience all Jesus has for us right now.

I say, “Right now” because I know that the issue of having all Jesus wants for me in Heaven will not be an issue. The issue is right now.

1. Let Jesus teach you by the Holy Spirit and His Word.

The Word came from the Holy Spirit; not vice versa. Don't be afraid of the Holy Spirit. Let Him teach you, lead you, guide you,

What has God taught you.

We are not getting a Word from God.

2. Let Jesus be the Son of God.

You can't have too big of a vision of Jesus; but you can have too low of a view of Him.

He is the Son of God but that doesn't mean He is not God. He is God in-flesh!!!

He is the Son of Man - he knows how we feel. He's been here. He's been through it. He knows.

3. Let Jesus work in your ordinary situations of life.

Our over familiarity with the normal and the "everyday" will cause us to overlook the greatest times of watching God working.

Jesus worked in life - everyday life.

The greatest miracle God may be doing in your life right now is learning to love your spouse unconditionally; or submitting to parental authority.

Don't overlook the "ordinary."

4. Let Jesus work through as you cast off offenses.

We get offended at persons, about events and time.

If you are offended in my spirit - you will miss Jesus even when He is standing before you.

All offense is directed to God.

God is in control. He had the power to change things but He didn't.

Notice - the lack of works is not due to a lack of faith, but unbelief.

David O. Cofield
CrossRoads Baptist Church
February 20, 2011 10:15 a.m.

Matthew 13: 53-58